

Ontario Racing Commission

The Ontario Racing Commission, a self-financing regulatory agency responsible for the regulation of the horse racing industry in Ontario, has an immediate opening for the following position:

Regulatory Analyst

Reporting to the Chief Administrative Officer, you will gather and organize both qualitative and quantitative information on projects of various sizes working closely with both internal and external sources and stakeholders. You will analyse the information gathered, develop recommendations as necessary, present in a clear manner and communicate in a variety of different formats, to a variety of audiences.

Qualifications: Strong fundamentals in economics, accounting or similar business discipline (preferably a bachelor's degree or professional designation) demonstrated through at least 3 years of related work experience. Your resume must communicate that you demonstrate strong ethics, integrity, and an aptitude to learning; that you are motivated, proactive and well-organized. Excellent interpersonal communication and presentation skills, computer skills, project management, political acuity, analytical ability are required. Knowledge of the regulatory framework governing horse racing and bilingual are an asset. Salary range to start at $60,000.

Please forward resume and covering letter, quoting position applied for, by March 19th 2010 to: Human Resources, Ontario Racing Commission, 10 Carlson Court, Suite 400, Toronto, ON M9W 6L2 Fax: (416) 213-7827

No phone calls please. We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.